

SIMON TEGALA MURDER WITH IMPUNITY

TERMS & CONDITIONS

This Contract ("the Contract") is named between _____ ("the Purchaser") and Simon Tegala ("the Artist") made this _____ day of _____ 2010.

I, the Artist agree to sell this Knife¹ ("the Knife") in that it could be used to aid, abet, counsel or procure the commission of a murderous act ("the Act").

The Purchaser agrees to purchase the Knife in consideration of payment of £5000.00 (five thousand pounds sterling).

The Purchaser in agreeing to purchase the Knife for £5000.00 will accordingly comply with the following terms and conditions as set out in the schedule below.

1. Upon receipt of the Knife the Purchaser may commit murder ("the Act") of whosoever he/she chooses ("the Victim").
2. The Purchaser must ensure that the performance of the Act is a causal link in the mortality of the Victim².
3. The Purchaser upon successfully completing paragraph 2 of this Contract must place the Knife next to the body of the Victim or within close proximity of the scene of the Act.
4. So far as possible the Purchaser must ensure that there is no careless, reckless or negligent evidence left at the scene of the Act so as to reveal the identity of the Purchaser³.
5. The Purchaser must leave the scene of the Act and is bound by the terms of this Contract not to divulge the participation of the Purchaser to the Act to any third party.
6. The Artist, whose name is engraved upon the Knife used to commit the Act, will take full responsibility for any indictable proceedings in relation to the Act.

¹
This Knife is produced as a unique and individual art object.

²
The Victim must undergo a fatality as a result of the Act. The survival of the Victim would render this Contract null and void and the Purchaser must accept full responsibility and liability.

³
Gloves or other concealing material should be worn to safeguard against the possibility of fingerprints of the Purchaser to be left upon the Knife.
